Books

The Four Hour Workweek by Tim Ferriss

The Four Hour Workweek does exactly what it promises in the title: it shows you how to drastically reduce the amount of time you spend working without drastically reducing the amount of money you earn. He discusses how to set up a muse (selling a product online to generate income) as well as many ways to automate an existing business. An alternative approach to making money passively!

Vagabonding by Rolf Potts

This is the book that reportedly inspired Tim Ferriss to create his masterpiece in the first place. Vagabonding is more about what you do with all the extra time you create for yourself. It's about lifestyle design and it's about choosing to prioritize travel and adventure and living life over just 'making more money at work'. Learn about 'mini retirements' and much more!

The Personal MBA by Josh Kaufman

This is a fantastic tome on business and one that will greatly help you to better understand the crucial key pieces of business. That's very important because it is what will allow you to build a business that is self-sustaining and that brings in profit even while you're sound asleep. When you know the things that really matter, you can stop wasting time with the 'fluff'.
